GIRL BOSS:

“I am Africa’s first female admiral today because my husband let me be. He said if you are not happy, I can’t be happy. He didn’t feel threatened by my success”. -Rear Admiral Itunu Hotonu

Say No to Gender inequality support your Girl child, give them equal opportunities to formal education and support your Women in their aspirations. If she has been deprived of formal education at an early age by her parents she wouldn't have ended up being a Rear Admiral. It pays better in the end to educate the girl child formally for both herself, the family and the society at large.
